Destiny | Steven Bonnell II
@TheOmniLiberal

I just wanna say how absolutely fucking hilarious it is that you fat soy fucks were screeching and screaming about how horrible and evil cancel culture is and the #metoo shit was, "innocent until proven guilty!!!!" but you're super content to take a side on this because of where the popular support is when only one side has spoken.

I'll respond with more substance when I can, but I'm being attacked by people who have literally nothing to lose and everything to gain by saying whatever insane shit they can publicly while trying to squeeze me, legally, privately, which puts me in the most annoying fucking spot imaginable when dealing with dipshits like you.

If you really want to show your nuts, why not attack places like Kiwifarms WHERE THE CONTENT IS LITERALLY STILL BEING HOSTED AND BLASTED TO THE WORLD? Oh, because that's a scarier party to go after, eh.

Talk about cowards.

Also this goes without saying, idrc if you like my Hasan/Ethan coverage. If you think Destiny should still have a career as a respected political creator after what he did to Pxie, I invite you to unsubscribe unfollow so I don't have to go through the trouble of purging you
